

Wednesday 2nd October 2024

→ Kept to the same verb tense throughout
→ Add more descriptive detail (use your five senses more)

Descriptive Writing: My Mead Hall.

As I looked at the new mead hall from ~~the~~ the outside, I saw the ~~glittering~~ ~~not~~ blinding sun bounce off of the glistening white waxy walls. The beautifully textured cobblestone ~~pathway~~ led up to the new hall which they called ~~the~~ The Oak and River. The mead hall was set up right next to a river for community events like boat crafting or canoeing. When there ~~was~~ ^{were} celebrations in the O&R, you can see the fire creep through the occasional gaps in the walls. ~~As I walk.~~ vb As I walk in, the oak doors opened, showing the bustling community having a laugh around the ~~fire~~ warmth of the several fires ~~in the~~ mead hall. There were two rectangular fires caged by cobblestone walls for protection but still, many torches were dotted around the place. ~~They~~ Even though they had electricity in the building, they still preferred to use fires for a more, old feeling. As I walk through the mead hall, I ~~heard~~ ^{saw} warriors boasting, ~~and~~ people talking and the king observing the celebration. As I draw closer to one of the torches, I heard the flames crackling as if it was ~~it~~ eating popcorn. ~~When I reached the stairs~~

When I reached the stairs, I ~~grabbed~~ the smooth oak handrail but nevertheless, it still had the odd, original textures from the oak tree. The stairs were layered by a thin, blue and red carpet for comfort. When I reached the top, I saw tables upon tables filled with dished food ready-to-eat. I saw fish, meat, salad, bread and a wide range of drinks. I could hear my stomach growling from looking at the mouth-watering food for too long. But but I ~~know~~ ^{know} the food was for later so I had to go back down.

(2M) In the end, I thought the Oak and River was amazing, so amazing that I now want to bring my army to destroy it!

A bit of a twist at the end!

Watch you